

High School at Veritas Classical Schools

Students will traverse the time line of American History from early colonialism to the present. Along the way they will meet great Americans such as John Adams, Benjamin Franklin and contemporary heroes such as Martin Luther King Jr. Classical literature selections such as To Kill a Mockingbird will lend depth to our American Studies.

ACT/SAT vocabulary, challenging composition and grammar will give students an advantage in advance preparation both for college and standardized tests. Language studies available in Spanish and Latin that satisfy language requirements.
